

NAHDW DAY 12

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

12/15/20

Is this Idafah?

أَكْبَرُ شَهَادَةً no because

أَكْبَرُ is comparative and شَهَادَةً is nasb

if its not Idafah then its not superlative.

Only way to make it superlative is if it has ال or its مُضَافٍ - مُضَافٍ إِلَيْهِ

Note: Im better than you, He's more than me, they are more qualified than her. Comparatives can be not so specific in english. In english you have to be more specific.

When in Arabic you want to give a comparative like أَكْبَرُ then you can actually add something nasb after the comparative هُوَ أَكْبَرُ شَهَادَةً he is greater testimony wise. That nasb means Im telling in what way he is greater. Its called (تَمْيِين) eg: أَنَا أَكْبَرُ عَمْرًا (Im greater when it comes to age) Eq: أَنَا أَكْثَرُ مِنْكَ (word مِنْ (from) when you used it with a comparative, then it means (than) أَنَا أَكْثَرُ مِنْكَ وَلَدًا (Im greather than you children wise)

Note: sometimes you find nasb with comparatives just to make it more specific. Its not a detail of an act. Nasb has many jobs, and one of them is

تَمْيِين (specify)

Surah Qiyamah note: التَّفَّتِ السَّاقُ بِالسَّاقِ

The shin intertwined with the shin (when a bad person is dying) Allah compares a persons life running out with the animal that just collapses.

Note: يَنْقَلِبُ عَلَى عَقْبَيْهِ - عَقْبُ

He turns around on both of his heels. Showing your back to your enemy and gearing up to take off running in retreat

Note: Places are Feimine
